The Tableaux.

Last night, Turner Hall was jammed with an eager crowd to witness the tableaux given by the Memorial Association, and all available standing room was occupied by gentlemen who gave up their seats to ladies.

The programme published yesterday morning was carried out, and was given with fine Between the fourth and fifth scenes a poem was recited by Mr. Ethelred Crozier on the disinterment of the Confederate dead from one of the battle fields of Georgia. The Memorial Association has been fortunate in securing the voluntary services of the ladies and gentlemen who took part in the exhibition just given, and the selection of the cast of the eces were most excellent, nothing at all obectionable to any one appearing in any of the tableaux.

An announcement was made that the Thespian Society would give an entertainment at Hoxsie's Hall this night week, the 24th inst., the proceeds to be given to the Memorial Association. The play will be the comedy, "She Stoops to Conquer," with "Slasher and Crasher" as the after-piece.

Exchange Items, The Athens Post publishes "Local Brieflets."

The Cleveland Banner states that trains now run daily over the entire length of the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad.

A revival is in progress at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Cleveland, conducted by Revs. Templeton and DeWitt. The result o far has been more than twenty conversions. There is a brisk demand for hogs at 4 cents gross in the Nashville market. They are worth $3.60 to $3.90 per hundred pounds gross at St.

Strange Work. Rumors were rife yesterday that some one and broken into the engine room at the City Hall the night before and tampered with the steam fire engine. Indeed it was said that a mysterious character had been seen in the city and some one hinted that the burglars who came on from Chicago to burn Chattanooga had reached Knoxville, whose turn would come next. After a good deal of inquiry all that we could learn was that the water had been turned out of the boiler of the engine and grease or oil had been substituted for it. Who did it or what was intended by it-unless there was an cendiary project on foot-is not known. This s the second time that midnight tricks have been perpetrated at the City Hall within a week or two. A question naturally arises as to whether the city does not need a larger police force to prevent the repetition of such mischief in the uture.

Slaughtering Hogs.

Messrs. McDaniel & Co. will commence x29 tf slaughtering hogs to-day, the first of the season, guttering and curbing on the west side of at their packing establishment near the mouth of First Creek. They have made preparation employ about sixty hands.

The first lot killed will be two hundred hogs which arrived yesterday from Blount county, owned by Messrs. Jones and Fanz, of this city. Hogs are plenty this year and East Tennessee should make this business pay. Every pound of bacon shipped is so much wealth added to our section. This trade is much more important to our city than the mercantile trade which drains the country of money. East Tennessee should ship thirty thousand hogs a year, which would bring say two hundred and seventy thousand dollars.

Car Burned.

As a freight train on the East Tennessec, Vir- They have not retailed one five cent's worth of ginia and Georgia road was going east yesterday morning, a box car next to the engine took fire when the train was within a short distance of Caswell's Station, a out six miles from town. The car was loaded with cotton, and it being impossible to extinguish the flames, she was cut loose and thrown from the track, so that the rest of the train could pass on. The whole body of the car was burned. Mr. Charley Hodge, the The only reason we heard assigned was that Road Manager, went up in the afternoon and the engine on the Virginia and Tennessee road | brought down the wreck. The fire is supposed failed in getting up steam sufficient to make to have been communicated by sparks from the

Help the Enterprising Boy.

We happen to know that there are a number of worthy boys in the city, poor and friendless, who would willingly work if any one would need rates. See advertisement in another do something, and to earn a living not only for themselves but for their widowed mothers and their helpless sisters, we cite their constant applications for work. Are there no kind Samaritans in our midst? Is there no one who will come to the relief of the class about whom we are writing? They do not ask for alms. They beg for work. Give it to them.

Old Mr. A., about 80 years old, says an exchange, was so bold as to marry a young cine, and take pleasure in recommending it to wife, and, in due course of time, was presented with a son. On the day of christening, the nurse handed young master about with the usual exclamation that he was the very image of his papa, "Very image of his papa?" "Very like indeed," said a lady; "no hair, no teeth,"
